

10:50 PM italy No, all thumbs up from me. If I were lying to you, I'd smile and say "that sounds great." I'm honest with you because I sincerely thought of us as partners.

Oh but you're not! You agreed to warn me of unexpected moves, then didn't. When I brought this up you ignored it and misdirected me in hopes I'd forget. You've revealed things to England without my permission, and then made up a story about it after the fact!

And you can't be a real partner with someone who is depending on your good graces to survive. That's not a partnership. We could never be real partners unless we had some notion of equality, and I'm outmatched in both skill and numbers.

You and Austria, however, were until recently a perfect example of a true partnership. Dot-parity, coordinated attacks, really beautiful work. So don't act as if you don't know this to be true. We were never a partnership of that kind.

BOT Diplomacy You thought the opponent told the truth.

11:43 PM italy Well, this is very disappointing to me, and I obviously disagree with the way you are characterizing me and this game.

I have a reputation in this hobby for being sincere. Not for being duplicitous. It has always served me well.

If you feel that way, then me continuing to explain myself isn't going to change your mind. If you don't want to work with me, then I can understand that. Let's consider our deals and commitments to be void, and let's play our games separately.

If you have any deal you'd like to propose, I'll consider them, but I won't continue to try to help your game if you think I'm not sincerely trying to be helpful.
